THE 2025 CHICAGO WOMEN'S CONFERENCE & EXPO

We will have a half-day conference in the morning with a catered, hot breakfast. The Conference will begin at 7:30 am and conclude at 1:30 pm. There will be three break-out session times: 9:15 am, 10:15 am, and 11:15 am, and a fashion show to wrap things up. Sessions are 45 minutes in length and there will be time for shopping until 1:30.

This year's theme is "Winning the Race". We plan to keep our three general topic areas - Personal Empowerment (encompassing fun, leisure and hobbies), Business & Finance (including professional development and financial savvy), and Personal Wellness (including physical, emotional and spiritual well-being, style and beauty) – but with a tie to leadership.

Our target audience for this year's conference remains the same: women ages 18 or older, from any cultural or religious background, in any professional industry. We want women who are passionate about developing or honing leadership skills to attend; it doesn't matter if they are entrepreneurs, retirees, stay-at-home moms, seniors or budding executives.
